

LOCAL LEAGUE PHONATHON SHARING POLICY

If your local League participates in making calls for the annual LWVIL Phonathon (scheduled for February 1 - March 31, 2012), any gifts received by the state League office from your local members prior to May 1, 2012 will be counted toward the total gifts on which your share is based. Sharing percentage is 15%.

In addition, your League will receive 15% of donations received (not pledges) in response to calls made by your League members to other members.

Phonathon pledge payments will be tallied on June 1, 2012 to determine each participating local League's total.

Participating local Leagues must designate a local coordinator who is accountable for the following:

- receiving and distributing all materials sent by the state office
- ensuring that callers are trained and that they conduct calls in accordance with state League policy and instructions
- collecting, organizing and returning all Phonathon paperwork to the state office no later than April 16, 2012
