

Issues Briefing 2018 -- continued

We are passionate about making democracy work for every individual in our country but how can we achieve anything when the divides distract and hamper progress? We will explore this problem and discuss solutions in numerous issue areas.

We look forward to hearing your ideas about how to bridge divides for the common good.

Registration will open January 2nd. More details to come in December.